

ASQUITH'S RETURN TO PARLIAMENT IS HUGE SENSATION

All Other Political Questions Completely Eclipsed by Triumphant Victory of Former Premier.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—All political questions are for the moment completely eclipsed by the triumphant return to parliament by a majority of the size which astonished everybody, including his own supporters. The restoration of Mr. Asquith's presence and influence in the councils of parliament is held to be an event destined to have important consequences in the politics of Great Britain and probably the world.

Politicians of all parties talked of nothing yesterday but the possibilities opened by his active participation in leadership of the opposition, which it is generally conceded, he will take over forthwith from Sir Donald Maclean. It is understood Mr. Asquith will take his seat in the House next Monday.

Most newspapers, however, welcome the return of the great liberal leader, even those which opposed him politically, having good reasons for him. Their views as to the significance of his election, however, differ widely, it being variously declared to be true, among other things, to growing popular disgust with the coalition government, popular hostility to the labor program of nationalization which Mr. Asquith emphatically condemns and reawakens liberalism. Among other causes submitted by the press for the return of the former premier's big majority is the vote cast by women in being against the coalition government, and on the other hand, that they are irritated by the high prices which they are disposed to attribute to the present government.

The Times interprets the election as a re-assertion of the coalition, and hostility to which it says, has been "driving electors toward labor because the people thought they saw therein the only alternative."

Mr. Asquith's most conspicuous supporter of the London press, the Daily

News, predicts he will detach a certain number of coalition liberals from the government and express the belief the last general election on the coalition ticket has been fought.

The Daily Mail also foresees a defection of liberals from the coalition government and thinks Premier Lloyd George will move toward liberal opposition in an effort to retain the allegiance of that party.

"GENLAX KEPT ME OUT OF HOSPITAL"

Mrs. Lee Mathews, 697 S. Third St., Memphis, Tenn., Says Genlax Put Her on Her Feet.

Letters of gratitude continue to pour into the offices of Benson & Benson's Laboratory praising Genlax. Men, women, and children everywhere are testifying to the wonderful effects of this famous prescription. Recently Mrs. Lee Mathews, 697 S. Third St., Memphis, Tenn., wrote:

"Was sick and on the verge of going to the hospital. Dr. Benson had one of his advertising companies near our home and I decided to get a bottle of Genlax. It has done me more good than any medicine I ever had in my life. I was nervous, had nervous headaches, an awful pain in my side, was constipated, had indigestion. The doctor told me I had tuberculosis. I take great pleasure in recommending Genlax to sufferers with indigestion, constipation, blood or kidney trouble, for Genlax has put me on my feet where everything else had failed."

The above, as stated, is only one of the many testimonials which are sent to Dr. Benson's office without solicitation. Some say they suffered from stomach trouble and were apparently cured by Genlax. Others had shooting pains around the heart caused by indigestion and constipation and were relieved by Genlax. This great medicine tones people up, assists nature, it is made to keep the liver active, strengthens the kidneys, puts the nerves in condition, removes poisonous gases and germs from the stomach and aids digestion.

You can get a big bottle of Genlax for a dollar at Wallburn-Lyle's, Battier's, Hammer-Ballard's, Mosley-Robinson's or other drug stores. Genlax is sold everywhere. No matter where you live your druggist can get Genlax for you from his jobber or Benson & Benson, Memphis, Tenn., will send it postpaid, $1 a bottle, or full course of six bottles for $5.00.
